

RACIAL HARASSMENT (76 incidents took place in Suffolk during Q3)

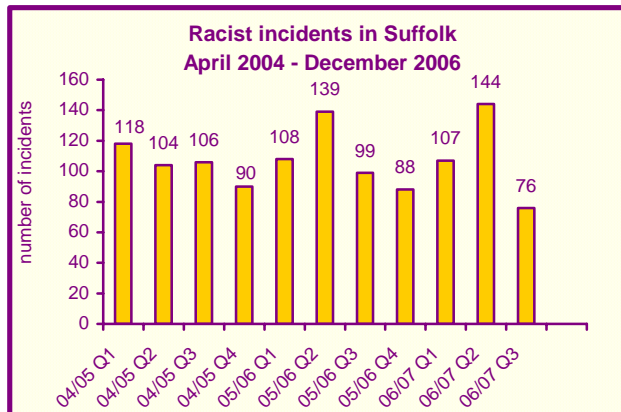

Harassment was the most common type, making up almost two thirds of all incidents

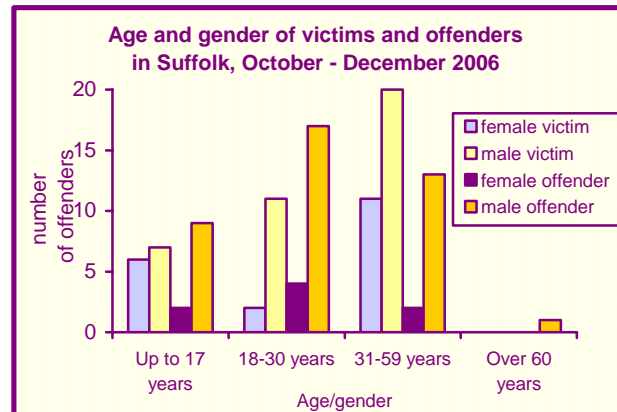

One third of all racial incidents recorded in Suffolk took place in Ipswich; a quarter took place in Waveney

* Non-Crime - These are hate incidents reported to the police that do not amount to a criminal offence. Source: Suffolk Constabulary

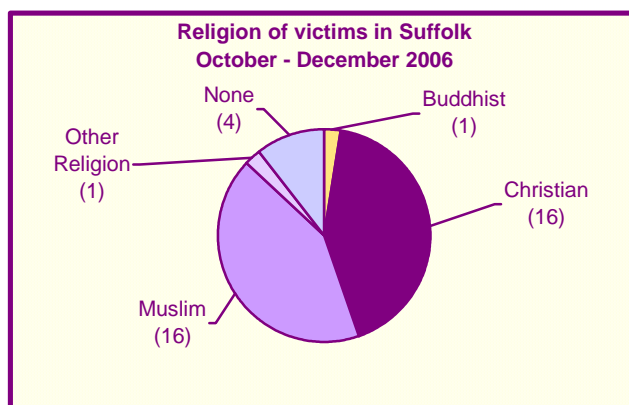

(based on 76 incidents – including 4 location not known)

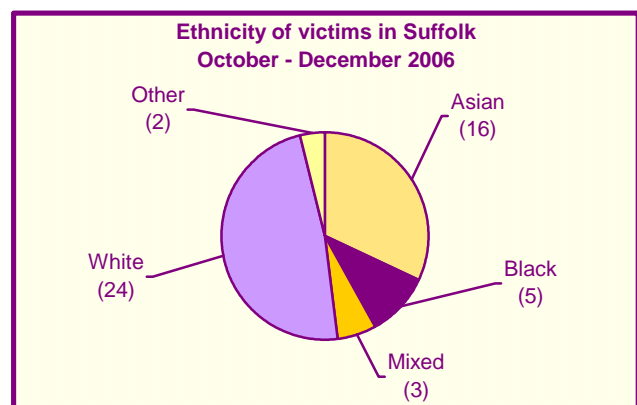

The number of incidents in the last quarter, 76, is the lowest since 2003, and almost half the number recorded in the previous quarter

In addition, there was one female and seven male victims whose age was unknown, and a further 11 victims and 28 offenders about whom no data was available

Equal numbers of victims were Christian and Muslim; religion was unknown for almost half of all victims (34 out of 76)

Almost half of all victims were white, followed by a third who were Asian; ethnicity was unknown for 24 of the 76 victims
