Temporary Library Service

From Monday 4th January, 2010, there will be three library locations around Bury St. Edmunds. The main site opened at New Shire Hall on Monday 14th December. Services available include, books, the internet, photocopying, Sunday crafts, TopTime and Bookstart.

On Monday 4th January, there will be a library service available at the Quaker Meeting House in St. John's Street, offering a selection of popular fiction and talking books for loan. It will also be possible to collect your reservations from Quaker House, by selecting Bury Access Point as your pick-up point when placing the reservation.

From 4th January a mobile library will be available on Mondays and Fridays on the Cornhill, outside the former Woolworths building. You will be able to return and check-out library books here.

Customers can also use the Library Point in West Suffolk House on Western Way, close to Asda.

Library Shuttle Bus

The shuttle bus service will start on Wednesday 6th January 2010, and will run on Wednesday's and Saturday's.

The bus will leave from Stand 3 at the bus station in St Andrews Street North at 10.00, 11.00, 12.00, 13.00, 14.00 and 15.00. It will stop outside Shire Hall and will make the return journey at 10.40, 11.40, 12.40, 13.40, 14.40 and 15.40
