

Motion: Proposed by Councillor Sonia Barker and seconded by Councillor Sarah Adams

“Non-attendance, access to legal and social support for parents, and a lack of liaison between students, families and schools are having a serious detrimental effect on educational attainment in Suffolk. Educational Welfare Officers have a proven track record at helping to increase educational attainment. This council calls on the Cabinet to review the level of funding, the numbers and the status of those people employed as Education Welfare Officers with a view to enhancing the invaluable service which they provide to the most vulnerable children in Suffolk.”
