

Motion: Motion 1 proposed by Cllr Sonia Barker and seconded by Cllr Bryony Rudkin:
In recognition of the 13 secondary schools in Suffolk which are inadequate or require improvement according to the Ofsted website, and the 30% of Suffolk's secondary school children who are receiving a sub-standard education, this council will:

- publish an action plan for improvement for each of the schools and academies in Suffolk that have been rated as requires improvement or inadequate.
- take a proactive approach to entering into dialogue with Suffolk's failing academies and their sponsors with a view to ensuring they take on services provided by the Learning Improvement Service.
- commission a thorough peer review of the whole of education and skills in Suffolk, led by an outside organisation such as the LGA, in order to identify what it is that this Council needs to do to significantly improve educational results.
