

Motion: Motion 1 - Proposed by Councillor Sarah Adams and seconded by Councillor Sandy Martin

This Council believes that the current situation in adult social care will continue its downward spiral with further predicted cuts. This will further endanger the lives of many vulnerable elderly and disabled residents of Suffolk. Home Care services are failing to meet the demand of patients awaiting discharge from hospital. Residential care homes have already closed and more will follow unless a more sustainable funding regime is found.

This Council calls on the administration to

- (a) Publish a coherent plan for reducing delayed discharges from hospital;
- (b) Ensure a sustainable level of funding for all county residential placements.
