A screenshot of a web form titled "Email" for setting up alerts. The form is divided into several sections, each with a title in bold blue text. The "Email" section has a text input field with the placeholder "Email used to create account". The "Description" section has a text input field with the placeholder "Describe your alert". The "Who are you" section has a dropdown menu with the placeholder "Please Select...". The "Get alerts on" section has a dropdown menu with the placeholder "Visible map area". The "Get alerts for" section has two checkboxes: "Public events" and "Roadworks", both of which are checked. The "Traffic impact" section has a horizontal slider with a red-to-green gradient, ranging from "High impact" on the left to "All works" on the right. The "Frequency" section has three radio buttons: "Daily" (selected), "Weekly", and "Monthly". At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: a dark blue "Reset" button and a red "Set Alert" button. Red boxes highlight the "Email" field, the "Description" field, the "Who are you" dropdown, the "Get alerts on" dropdown, the "Frequency" section, and the "Set Alert" button.
