Shalah Mellor – Educational Psychologist

About me...

I enjoy meeting new people; My background is working with children, young people and adults in education; I like reading, walking and running and I have a family rabbit called Millie.

What is important to me?

Listening carefully to people, so that I know what is important to them

Building trusting relationships

Enabling children and young people to have a voice.

That children and young people are inspired to achieve what they wish to achieve.

Working together to seek the best pathway forward.

What people like and admire about me...

My colleagues tell me I am

- Helpful,
- Friendly,
- Kind,
- and Calm

How best to support me...

Sometimes I need to think about things so I may be quiet whilst I listen and think about what you have to say

Be aware that I always try to do my best
