

Environmental Information Regulations – Response - 26633

1. Does Suffolk County Council have a conservation team or a similar team that is typically consulted on planning applications; and, if so, what the organisational structure is in relation to this – i.e., teams, departments, and so on.

2. Details of training or qualifications prerequisite for any standard conservation officer.

3. If it is disclosable, if I could please have email addresses for any teams, as I would like to send a short survey related to my dissertation some time next summer for any officers who might be interested in completing it.

We are writing to advise you that, following a search of our paper and electronic records, it has been established that the information you requested is not held by Suffolk County Council. The Council has no dedicated Conservation Officer roles, with responsibility for commenting on planning applications.

If you have not already done so, then you may wish to write to the Borough and District Councils of Suffolk:
