Environmental Information Regulations – Response - 28094

A speed detection device/display has been fitted on St Olaves Road in Bury St Edmunds.

Can you advise what speeds have been detected on this device since installation. I am happy to wait for a response on this request until the data has been gathered Suffolk County Council does not hold this information. You may wish to contact Bury Town Council to request the information.