

Motion: Amendment proposed by Councillor Mary Evans and Seconded by Beccy Hopfensperger . This council strongly believes that no girl or young woman should be forced to use socks, newspapers or other inappropriate substitutes as sanitary wear due to their financial circumstances.

Therefore, this council vows to tackle 'period poverty' by requiring its Public Health Directorate to promote existing effective projects addressing Period Poverty in Suffolk particularly the scheme operated by Lowestoft Rising and the pilot run by Suffolk Libraries.

Further to this, Suffolk County Council will do all it can to encourage all academy trusts, sixth form colleges, and other education institutions in Suffolk as well as its maintained schools to provide free sanitary products.

This council also calls on the Leader of the Council to write to the Chancellor of the Exchequer asking him to enact the Government's previously announced decision to make all sanitary products VAT free.
