

Motion: Motion 3 – Proposed by Councillor Jack Abbott and seconded by Councillor Peter Gardiner. Given the repeated warnings by the IMF, the Bank of England, National Farmers Union and employers large and small across Suffolk, this council recognises the severe and long-lasting damage that a ‘no-deal Brexit’ could have on our local economy. This council pledges to support local business and the wider Suffolk economy to continue to grow and trade effectively by writing to the Prime Minister and the Secretary of State for Exiting the European Union expressing their concern about the increasing likelihood of a ‘no deal Brexit’ and the impact it will have on the economy, prosperity and success of Suffolk in the future.
