

Motion: Proposed by Councillor Sarah Adams and seconded by Councillor Jack Abbott
This Council resolves to reverse the cut to Citizens Advice of £184,000 for the financial year 2019/20 and will explore ways to reverse the expected funding cut for the following year, 2020/21.
This proposal is cost neutral and will be paid for by reallocating resources, not by increasing the overall spend in the 2019/20 budget.
In 2019/20, £187,500 will be ringfenced from the councillors' Locality Budget. This will reduce each councillor's individual Locality Budget from £8,000 to £5,500.
Further, this Council will aim to reverse the expected Citizens Advice funding cut in 2020/21 by establishing a PDP that will look at the wider issue of financial support for voluntary and third sector organisations that are reliant on Suffolk County Council grants. This will include, but is not limited to, looking at the use of the remaining Locality Budget in order to identify more effective ways this money can be used.
