

Motion: Motion A – Proposed by Councillor Matthew Hicks and seconded by Councillor Sarah Adams.

“In January 2019, the Local Government Boundary Commission for England commenced an electoral review of Suffolk. Suffolk County Council meets the Commission’s criteria for electoral inequality, with 17 divisions having a variance of over 10% of the average for the county. The review will seek to deliver electoral equality for voters in local elections.

Political party and cross-party discussions have revealed a strong preference for single Member divisions. Although the Commission is not bound by our recommendations, we believe there is value in demonstrating our strength of feeling on this issue in our submissions to the electoral review. We, therefore, call on this Council to inform the Local Government Boundary Commission for England that the Council favours a return to all single Member divisions.”
