

Motion: Motion C – Proposed by Councillor Jack Abbott and seconded by Councillor Jack Owen
 Amended by Councillor Caroline Page and seconded by Councillor Penny Otton
 ‘This council recognises that the implementation of the new home to school transport policy continues to cause unnecessary difficulty and distress for children and their parents. Simple, common sense, cost effective changes will ensure siblings are not required to take different buses, single children are not separated from the rest of their village and students have the security of a bus seat for all 5 years of secondary school.
 This council asks Cabinet to instigate a public consultation to propose the following changes:
 1. Offer free home-to-school transport to siblings in families where one child is already attending their catchment school from prior to the implementation of the new home-to-school transport policy.
 2. End split villages, by allowing officers to apply a 'common sense' approach regarding the 'nearest schools' criteria. For example, if the 'nearest school' dividing line excludes a single child from the rest of their village, officers will have the power to award free home-to-school transport to that child without having to go through a lengthy appeal process.
