

Dr Jemma Carter

Specialist Educational Psychologist

Experience/about me

I am a specialist educational psychologist, my usual working week may include:

- Working alongside the Youth Justice Service facilitating a trauma-informed pilot
- Working with families, children and young people directly and through consultation
- Supervising and supporting professionals who work with families, children and young people
- Delivering training to settings, services and education staff.

What's important to me

My family and my friends are the centre of my personal world, I am a proud mum.

Professionally I hold the following values in high esteem; inclusion, person-centred work, advocacy and promoting social, emotional and mental wellbeing for our children, young people, their families and those who work to support them.

What People like and admire about me...

People say I am:

- Approachable
- Enthusiastic
- Organised
- Kind and supportive
- Efficient
- Friendly and talkative
- An effective communicator

How to support me...

I like to have written records of things to do, and to work through, so please email me anything that requires attention and it can be added to my list!

I am always happy to hear feedback or if you feel I am not capturing what you are saying, stop me, and explain how you feel.

I really enjoy ongoing projects, which I can manage and get very involved with.
