

About me:

My name is Olivia and I am an Educational Psychologist in the South Ipswich area.

Important to me:

- My family and friends are very important to me
- My crazy dog Ziggy
- I enjoy running, cycling and walking
- I like spending lots of time working on my allotment

In my work:

- I like to use person centred approaches
- I focus on a strength based approach
- I like Dynamic Assessment and finding out how best to support those we work with
- I enjoy opportunities to work systemically
- I have a passion for wellbeing in schools, particularly supporting the development of Supervision models in school.

My colleagues would say I am....

- ❖ A keen listener, always trying my best to empathise with others situations.
- ❖ Always caring and thinking of others
- ❖ Hardworking and supportive
- ❖ Creative
- ❖ Well organised

Projects I am involved in....

- I am an ELSA supervisor and have supported with ELSA training
- I am supporting four schools with the Sandwell Project, a whole school approach to mental health and wellbeing.
- I am supporting the development of supervision across Inclusion Services in Suffolk and also supporting projects developing supervision in schools.

How best to support me...

I am new to working as an Educational Psychologist and I appreciate when my co-workers are willing to share their experiences and knowledge, it is always great to hear other perspectives in the work we do.

I love being part of ongoing projects and having new experiences to develop my skills.

As we are often out and about with work it is usually best to send me an email to get in touch.
