

Mini-PATH Training

What is it?

- Mini-PATH training is delivered virtually to a cohort of professionals, who, in their role, support children and young people, who may need a mini-PATH, to help them with their future planning.
- The training covers the importance of person-centred planning and provides you with the skills and confidence to facilitate mini-PATHs for children and young people with whom you work with.
- The training offers practical sessions, in which you experience a PATH process, develop skills to facilitate and graphic.

What do people say about it?

“ I am confident that this will be a very useful tool that I can use at any stage when working with my students.

“Provided skills which will be of great benefit to students going forward.”

“ I now feel equipped to be able to deliver this with confidence”

What is the Impact?

- ✓ Upskilling other professionals, so that they are able to support Children and Young People in their settings to be ambitious.
- ✓ Professionals are able to use the skills learnt, and adapt into a way that works best for the individual child they are supporting.
- ✓ By delivering the training virtually, we can reach a larger cohort of professionals and therefore children and young people.
