

About me:

- I like running and sports
- I like going on adventures
- I would like to get better at maths and video games.

I am a Trainee Educational Psychologist.

This means I work with children to try and make school better for them.

People say I am:

- Fun
- Good at listening
- Good at playing games
- Kind
- Good to talk to

What we might do together:

- Talk about what's important to you
- Play games or quizzes
- Draw

What is important to me:

- Helping children to tell adults what they're good at and what they might need help with.
- Making learning a happy experience for children.

My name is Tia Fitzgerald, this is me doing a running competition... one of my favourite things.
