

INCLUSION FACILITATOR - One Page Profile

About us...

Our job as Inclusion Facilitators means that we are able to meet children and young people at home or in school across Suffolk, and during Covid-19, on the phone or over video call. The children and young people we see tell us about things they find difficult, or that other people find hard to understand. Together, with people who are important to them, we find lots of ways to help make things better.

What children and young people have said about us...

- “Helpful”
- “Friendly”
- “Made a difference”
- “It’s helped me to grow myself”
- “I like talking to you”
- “I don’t mind taking your calls”
- “What we have done together has been really helpful”

What is important to us as Inclusion Facilitators?

We like to get to know people, so that we know what is important to them by building trusting relationships

We can work with people to help them in pursuing a positive future

We maximise inclusion and connection with the wider community

We can help to find ways to improve friendships and social connections

We can help to boost confidence and raise self-esteem
