

DIANE BARROW

INCLUSION FACILITATOR

PGCE (ADULT & FURTHER EDUCATION)

EXPERIENCE

I am currently on a secondment with Psychology & Therapeutic Services as an Inclusion Facilitator.

I began with volunteering to teach literacy to adults via 'Community Education' before moving on to teach at an FE College. I obtained my PGCE in Adult & Further Education and then moved onto the 'Youth & Connexions Service' to provide support with Post-16 career choices & emotional well-being. I have worked at Suffolk County Council for over 14 years in different roles within 'Children & Young People's Services' and have particular experience of supporting SEND. I have worked in numerous educational settings in the Ipswich area, and I have specialist knowledge of post-16 provision and the barriers young people face to accessing education, employment & training.

HOW BEST TO SUPPORT ME:

I value constructive feedback and identification of the positives.

I also have a slight hearing impairment so you may need to repeat things.

WHAT PEOPLE LIKE ABOUT ME

My colleagues describe me as thoughtful, imaginative and good fun. I've been told I show determination to get things completed. I am a good listener and like to hear people's stories.

I try to make a positive difference to children and young people in my work. I value working alongside other people as part of a team and sharing ideas and resources to achieve the best outcomes.
