

You do not need to have a child at a school to become a school governor

The Local Authority will train you and give you the skills for your role

You can be a governor at more than one school

You can attend meetings as an observer to see if it is for you –try before you buy!

Most employers will give you time off work to be a governor

You do not have to have any professional qualifications to be a governor

GOVERNANCE FACTS

HOW TO FIND OUT MORE ABOUT BECOMING A
GOVERNOR

Contact the Suffolk Leadership and Governance Team on 01473 263972 or email
governance@suffolk.gov.uk